Teachers John Coppola and Michael Sonntag have built a school based on their highly successful formula called The New Approach, which MARKETS each actor according to his or her individual talent, assets, and personality. Now, this innovative way to look at the craft of acting is presented in a format specifically suited to young actors.

MICHAEL SONNTAG

Michael Sonntag is a casting director, film producer, teacher, and actor. Born and raised in St. Louis, MO, Michael began his career producing for NBC, after graduating from the University of Notre Dame. He has worked both in front of and behind the camera, in a wide range of positions - most recently casting the feature film, Nephilim, as well as a number of commercials for clients such as TV Land, Centegra Health, and Walt Disney Studios, with his business partner, John Coppola. Through their company, Studio C Artists, they are currently producing the romantic comedy, Detour, and their next casting project will be a web series for The Disney Channel.

Michael's other credits include casting director and line producer on the TV series, Bourbon Street, as well as Co-Producer on award-winning director Vince DiPersio's acclaimed documentary, Truth In Terms Of Beauty, and Associate Producer & UPM on Semper Fi: One Marine's Journey, for Showtime. Prior to producing, Michael held the title of Director of Development for Shakrah Films, after working for many years as an actor in Hollywood.
