

ARE YOU A HYPHENATE?

(AN ACTOR-WRITER, ACTOR-PRODUCER, DIRECTOR-PRODUCER, WRITER-DIRECTOR, PRODUCER-SCRIPT SUPERVISOR-GRIP, OR ANY OTHER COMBINATION YOU CAN THINK OF.)

If so, then come check out Studio C Company – it's just like a theatre company – only each project is filmed instead of being put up on stage. The work includes shorts, features, serials, etc. – as well as an exclusive internet distribution deal in place for all of the projects once completed.

CALLING ALL ASPIRING FILMMAKERS!

We are looking for New Filmmakers to join our Company.

Are you an actor or filmmaker who needs tape for your demo reel? Just finished film school, but don't quite know how to get your foot in the door in the industry?

Are you an entertainment hybrid (you know - actor/director/writer/grip/costume designer types) and you're looking to branch out into another area in your career? Then check out Studio C Company!

You are invited to join us at an "Open House". The EVENT is totally FREE, and is the only one we'll be holding this year – so don't miss out! If you are a ROOKIE or up-and-coming filmmaker, then you will want to attend and learn how our Company can help you gain experience in all areas of filmmaking.

This is a great opportunity! Space in Studio C Company is limited, and new members are admitted only twice a year. We have just completed three films, and are gearing up for our January '08 production schedule.

Studio C Company operates much like a movie studio under the studio system – each person is assigned to a film unit, which in turn produces each project from development through post-production. We've got a great group of emerging filmmakers and industry professionals working together to produce films. The work includes shorts, features, serials, etc. – as well as an exclusive internet distribution deal in place for all of the projects once complete. Our program is PART-TIME allowing you to continue to work full-time or remain a full-time student. If you need more experience and want HANDS-ON training, then don't miss our only Open House this year – find out how easy it can be to get your filmmaking career started TODAY!
